JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 21, 1904.

HEAVY BLOW TO RUSSIA

THAT OF THE SEVEN DAYS BATTLE.

Gained Nothing and Lost Enormously in Men and Equipment—Final Retreat Almost a Rout.

With the country enveloped in a thick fog and the roads in a wretched condition activity for a time is impossible for either the Japanese or Russian army south of Mukden. There have been several brisk skirmishes and surprises of a minor character, but lifting of the fog must precede any notable conflict of the hostile forces. No official report from the commander at Port Arthur later than Oct. 10 has reached St. Petersburg.

WITH OKU'S ARMY.

With Oku's left army, Oct. 16, via Tien Tsin. Oct. 20.—The seven days' battle north of Yentai was the heaviest yet struck the Russians by the Japanese so far as loss of life is concerned. The Japanese army during the week buried 4,000 Russian dead left in front of its lines. The village in front of the left wing contains many Russian dead, but the shell fire of the retreating Russians prevents the Japanese from reaching them. Conservative estimates place the Russian casualties at not less than 25,000. Probably many more are on the field at places not yet searched. The Japanese report their total casualties at a little over 3,000 killed and wounded. The principal Russian casualties occurred in the determined counter attacks of each village captured by the Japanese, the Russian attacking parties in many cases being entirely annihilated. For the first time the Russians have met the Japanese on equal footing, not having strong defensive positions to depend on, and for the first time they attacked the Japanese in their own trenches. The Russians everywhere fought bravely, but they were unable to drive the Japanese out or hold their own position against three charges. Almost in every case the Russians retired from their positions at the first charge and then made repeated attempts to recapture them. The Japanese left army, with the front nearly ten miles moved forward about five miles fighting every inch of ground. The final retreat of the Russians was almost a rout. The Russians covered the retreat well with artillery and carried away much baggage and many wounded.

AT PORT ARTHUR.

Recent Events at the Besieged City.

Chefoo Oct. 20.—The most important recent events at Port Arthur include the capture by Japanese of further minor positions near the Blithing mountains and severe damage of a Japanese torpedo boat destroyer by striking a floating mine. According to Chinese advice, which reached here to day the Japanese made assault on the remaining outer works of the Blithing mountains at dawn of Oct. 8 but were repulsed. The following day the Russians made an attack on the Japanese trenches and they were in turn repulsed. The Japanese immediately followed with another assault resulting in the capture of an iron railroad bridge, which is 500 yards from the main fortress. The importance of these captures lies in the fact they curtail the Russian fire in harassing the Japanese who may attempt to advance on the trenches located on the slope of Blithing mountain. Since the capture of the points mentioned the Japanese assert they have successfully resisted numerous sorties in attempts to recapture them.

JAPANESE LOSSES.

Tokio, Oct. 20.—Reliable reports received from private advices estimate the losses of the Japanese left army during the recent battle at 5,000. The number of Russian dead is largely increased by the further discovery of bodies notwithstanding nightly removals by lantern light. The Russian forces have been heavily reinforced. Six divisions now confront the Japanese left army. Additional casualties of the center army just reported are twelve officers killed and thirty wounded.

WAR REPORTS.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—A Mukden dispatch dated yesterday says on the 18th a detachment of the Russian vanguard on the west surrounded a Japanese battalion and compelled it to lay down its arms.

SKAGEN, DENMARK, OCT. 20.

The Russian battle fleet arrived this morning and anchored in the bay.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—The Russian authorities have been unofficially assured the report that the United States contemplated tendering its naval officers in the interest of peace. The assurance was received with satisfaction.

ONLY SKIRMISHES.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—Apart from skirmishes and exploits of scouting parties there is almost complete suspension of operations in Manchuria. The heavens have intervened to stop bloodshed. Rain, impassable roads and exhausted armies are factors sufficient in themselves to explain the cessation of hostilities and these conditions are aggravated by a dense fog overshadowing the whole theatre of war.

The wild flight of rumors continues in St. Petersburg, rout or capture of Japanese divisions or battalions and scores of guns alternating with alarmist stories of Kuropatkin's retreat on Mukden, all equally untrue. The war office declares there have been no serious developments since the capture of Lone Tree hill last Sunday and authorizes the Associated Press to deny the report that a Russian battalion had been annihilated in trying to recross the Taitse river. A prominent general said:

"It is absurd to suppose that a battalion was still on the other side of the

SPEAKS BEFORE UNION LEAGUE CLUB.

Reviews the Attitude of the Republican Party Toward the Great Corporations—At Other Places.

New York, Oct. 20.—Senator Knox former United States attorney general, spoke before the Union League club to night. There was no other guest of the club and only members were included. Knox reviewed the attitude of the Republican party toward great corporations and gave in detail the situation as it confronted President Roosevelt at the time the question of the legality of the Northern Securities company was brought up. He then reviewed the course pursued by the president and requests of the judiciary committee of both houses of congress upon him (Knox) at attorney general, for suggestions as to legislation necessary. These requests were brought to the attention of the president. "Now here was the opportunity," Knox continued, "for a president who delighted to make broads upon the constitution to indulge himself to his heart's content. If he had closed his eyes and picked at random from fifty-one bills and resolutions then before congress he would likely have drawn one that violated the constitution in several places. That defect characterized many of them."

WITH RUSSIANS.

With the Russian position, at the village of Housan, south of Mukden, via Mukden, Oct. 20, 4:45 p. m.—There was a snail-paced battle between the Japanese and Russian armies at Housan yesterday afternoon. Upon the Russian advanced position southwest of Mukden. The Russians made a counter attack and the Japanese quickly fell back, having sustained severe losses. The Russian casualties were three killed and seven wounded. The Japanese were pressed so hard they were obliged to abandon a gun, but before abandoning the gun the breach block was removed. The timber contained 8 rounds of ammunition. Thanks to the dense fog prevailing at the time the Russians were able to remove the guns without the loss of a single man.

Winter clothing is very scarce at Port Arthur, especially shoes. The town is full of wounded. Flour is plentiful; the slaughter of horses and mules continues. Chinese who have reached Chefoo from Port Dalny say Japanese reinforcements continue to arrive daily. Japanese confirm this.

CHICAGO, OCT. 20.—A SPECIAL TO THE DAILY NEWS FROM CHICAGO SAYS:

"According to a camp follower who has been for some time with the Japanese army now besieging Port Arthur and is at present in Chifoo, having arrived from Dalny, the number of Japanese killed before the forts has reached 50,000. He says the military men, recklessly attacking the strongest positions, making bold rushes in masses, soldiers being stripped of their accommodations and clothing. The result was Russian machine guns mowed them down. He also asserts there is some talk among officers and men that leads to the belief that the Japanese mean to carry the inner forts early next month."

DENOMINATIONAL CONVENTIONS

SESSIONS OF NUMEROUS BODIES.

Presbyterians Adjourn—Episcopalians Adopt a Compromise Canon on Remarriage of Divorced Persons—To Baptist.

Boston, Oct. 20.—By an overwhelming majority a compromise canon on the remarriage of divorced persons was adopted by the house of deputies of the Episcopal general convention to day and if it is approved by the bishops the most important issue that has come before the present convention will be disposed of for at least three years. The compromise measure, like the old law, permits the remarriage of innocent persons in divorce for the cause of infidelity, but further provides that no remarriage shall be allowed within one year after the decree has been issued by a civil court. Satisfactory proof of the innocence of the applicant for remarriage must be furnished in the shape of court records and after the consent of the bishop is obtained, a clergyman may refuse to perform such a ceremony without subjecting himself to censure or discipline.

IN THE OPINION OF FRANK A. LEWIS, OF PHILADELPHIA, A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS, WHO FAVORED NO REMARRIAGE OF ANY DIVORCED PERSONS, BUT WHO ACCEPTED THE COMPROMISE, THE CANON ADOPTED TO DAY IS SO STRICT THAT IF ENDORSED BY THE BISHOPS IT WILL PRACTICALLY PUT THE CHURCH, AS HE EXPRESSED IT, "OUT OF THE DIVORCE BUSINESS."

Others, however, claimed they were stood: shrouded in darkness and saw no light in it.

THE MAJORITY OPINION FILED

IN THE WISCONSIN POLITICAL CASE.

Confirms the Decision Made Two Weeks Ago—The Dissenting Views of One Judge of Much Interest.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 20.—The long delayed majority opinion of the supreme court was filed to day in the case of Judge Marshall. It makes sixty typewritten pages and merely affirms the decision made two weeks ago, quoting authorities voluminously. The principal interest centers in the dissenting opinion by Chief Justice Cassady, which is in substance that the half breeds were right and the half breeds wrong in their contention. He holds the case comes within the first clause of section 35, revised statutes and that the duties of the secretary of state are ministerial, hence subject to control of the court; that official ballots should be prepared by the secretary of state under the first clause of the section. He dissents from the opinion that the state central committee had exclusive jurisdiction to determine the controversy. The opinion reviews the action of the committee acting as the committee on credentials and deciding in advance just what delegates should be allowed to enter the hall of the convention and participate in the organization. This feature of the convention is commented on in scathing terms. It says the committee assumed more power than the convention itself possessed.

Though some of the large trusts are for Parker, the masses are not, and they have the votes which count. Mr. Springer expects to leave shortly for St. Louis, whence he will proceed to his home in Denver to assist in the good work there.

AUTO DRIVERS.

Complaint is made of the actions of auto drivers in the country. A gentleman told a Journal reporter that he was driving Sunday morning in company with several others when they met an auto coming rapidly around a corner in the road. The gentleman says he had the hardest kind of work to manage his horse, as did some of the others, while the auto driver failed to slack up at all, but went forging ahead regardless of the safety of the people on the road. He thinks the man with the machine was from Springfield, and not Jacksonville.

UNITED EFFORT.

The Democratic candidate for governor sentimentally remarked that his prospects were getting better

every day, and, in fact, so great was the improvement that he felt certain of election. Well, there is no harm

in that, only if he really does think so what a come down he will have the night of Nov. 8. While the Democratic candidate may think his chances are improving, there is no doubt but that the skies are getting brighter every day as regards the Republican candidates in Morgan county. The taxpayers are coming to regard their interests in their true light, and will act accordingly. They will be glad to elect Bert Vanwinkle

state's attorney, for they know him to be all right in all respects, as the result will show. They will be pleased to keep Chas. L. Hayden in the circuit clerk's office, for he has done

so remarkably well that in this, as in other things, they don't see fit to change when things are all right.

Dr. Spencer will be the favorite for coroner, for a doctor can often decide matters which are important and may mean much to the people on urgent occasions. They know that J. H.

De Long will make an efficient county superintendent of schools, and for that reason they will be wise in giving him a majority of the suffrages

of the county, and then he takes his place he will show it all right. It is conceded that George Dietrich is just the man for county commissioner, and that is wise, for in all respects he is eminently the man for the place, and his important duties and complex work will have the intelligent attention of the right man.

Manell Dudley will survey the fields

and farms of the county in a manner which leave no criticism, and will show that the party made no mistake

in naming him.

THE OFFICIAL BALLOT.

The official ballot to be voted at the coming election in Illinois should be well understood beforehand so that no blunders may be made by the voter.

The campaign is at least quiet enough

for every man to inform himself

thoroughly as to what he wants to do and how to accomplish it without perpetence of a mistake.

In the first place, when he enters the voting place he will be handed by the judges two ballots. One of them will be the large blank ballot which will contain all the names of the candidates for president and presidential electors and for state and county officers. The other will be a little or separate ballot containing a proposed amendment to the state constitution

and certain proposed questions of public policy. A specimen official ballot will be printed in the Journal and voters should keep a copy of the paper

and study it until they are completely informed as to every candidate and every subject on which they wish to express a choice.

But it is proper to say now that the task of each voter will be to first

mark the large ballot for president and state and county officers, according to his preferences, voting a straight ticket, or voting for candidates on two or more tickets, if he prefers.

Having finished the large ballot he should then open the smaller one and proceed to express a choice on the questions there presented. These questions will be four in number for the state at large as given below, the first being for the amendment of the constitution:

"Amending Article IV. by adding thereto another section to be numbered 34, authorizing the general assembly to provide by statute a charter

or scheme of local self-government

for the city of Chicago."

This is the Chicago charter scheme

about which so much has been said

and which all parties appear to favor.

Two squares giving the voter a chance to mark "yes" or "no" will be printed opposite this proposition, as all others.

The second is a question of proposed public policy, as follows:

"Shall the state legislature amend the primary election law so as to provide for party primaries at which the voter will vote under the Australian ballot directly for the candidate whom he wishes nominated by his party?"

The next is also a question of public policy, as follows:

"Shall the state legislature pass a law enabling the voters of any county,

city, village or township, by majority vote, to veto any undesirable action of their respective law-making bodies?"

An affirmative vote on this proposition would enable the legislature to pass a law giving voters of any county, city, village or township the power

by majority vote to veto an undesirable action by their respective law-making bodies. It contemplates a radical move and one of doubtful territory.

The next, likewise a question of proposed public policy, is as follows:

"Shall the general assembly submit to the electors of the state an amendment to the constitution which will enable the voters of any county, city,

village or township to adopt such system of assessing and levying taxes as the voters of such local municipality

may desire?"

This is a proposition to have different systems of taxation in operation in the different counties of the state

at the same time, and possibly different systems in the same county. It would seem to promise endless confusion on this subject instead of simplifying it.

BIG MAJORITY IN ILLINOIS.

Globe-Democrat: That prediction

that Charles S. Denen will have a lead of 100,000 in Illinois looks safe.

Yates' margin was 61,000, but the conditions are more favorable to the Republicans of Illinois on the state ticket this year than they were four years ago. For president Illinois rolled up a plurality of 35,000 in 1900 but it is expected to do still better in 1904. The Democrats long ago took Illinois out of their list of doubtful states for this year.

Mr. Denen is making an active canvass, though this is as a concession to the proprietors rather than as an indication that any doubt is felt

as to the result. He has made a reputation as a reformer which is helping him, and also aiding the national ticket in his state. There are no factions among the Illinois Republicans

in 1904. All are supporting the party ticket enthusiastically. There is a feeling that it would be well for the party and for the state to at least equal in 1904 the 142,000 plurality rolled up for president in 1900. Illinois has lived down the discredit attaching to her Democratic majority in 1890 and 1892, but she feels that the occasion demands a pretty big Republican margin this year.

It was Tanager's intention just after the St. Louis convention to make a canvass in Illinois, but the unexpected drift of sentiment in favor of Roosevelt and Denen overgrew

him. He saw that Parker would be likely to do better in the year this year than Bryan was four years ago,

and realized that it would be well

to skip Illinois and most of the rest of the western states in the present canvass. Nothing can be gained by spending money and time in the campaign in the west under such un-

promising conditions for the Democrats as those which present themselves this year. It is altogether probable that Denen will have a much larger majority than has ever,

FARMERS IN COUNCIL.

Pigs are 4 or 5 days old in an ear of corn may be added, and every few days another ear until on full feed, but be careful not to feed too much. When pigs are from 3 to 4 weeks old begin feeding them. It is best to turn them in a clover pasture and feed in the field, but do not feed much corn just yet. Always feed and manage your hogs as best you can with a view to improving the fertility of your land. Sell in July, August or September, as prices are usually higher then, and this enables one to get the benefit of the clover pasture, which is my best love, as I can always make pork cheaply when I have plenty of good clover pasture. Lastly, when you sell your hogs, haul them to market, as that will enable you to get them there in prime condition.

After a few minutes had been devoted to a brief discussion of the speaker's remarks, Prof. J. W. Hart, of the Illinois agricultural college at Champaign, was presented, and gave a scientific talk on "How to Reduce the Cost of Milk." At the conclusion of his remarks, B. F. Staymates spoke briefly on the subject, "Preservation of Soil Fertility." Mr. Staymates believes that the best way to preserve the fertility of the soil is by proper rotation and the planting of leguminous crops like clover, and has but little use for the so-called commercial fertilizers. He and Mr. Rowe had a mild tilt on the subject of these. Anyway the idea advanced by the speaker costs the farmer less and has an established value, while many who have used the commercial article claim to have derived little if any benefit from it. Close attention was paid to all the speaker said and all regretted that the dinner hour brought his remarks to a close before he had much more than warmed up to his subject.

The first hour after dinner was devoted to "Domestic Science," and was in charge of the Orleans Woman's Country club. President Gibson had been called home on business and Secretary E. D. Scott called the meeting to order in his absence. There was a large attendance for the afternoon. Mrs. Belle Drury, the president of the Woman's club, was unavoidably absent, and Mrs. J. C. O'Neal presided for the ladies.

After the minutes of the meeting of last year had been read by the secretary, Miss Alyce Magill, Miss Laura Luken favored the institute with a well executed piano solo, which was roundly applauded.

The next number on the program was an excellent paper on the subject of "Domestic Science," read by Mrs. John C. O'Neal, of Pisgah. The subject was treated in a terse yet comprehensive manner and was thoroughly appreciated by all who had the privilege of hearing it. It is with regret that it can not be printed in full.

The next number was a reading entitled "A Reverie," by Mrs. M. H. Shepard. After another piano solo by Miss Luken, the meeting was again placed in the hands of the men. E. D. Scott then introduced the following resolution on behalf of himself and Mr. Staymates, and on motion the same was adopted without a dissenting voice:

Whereas, There exists in this country a powerful lobby, supported by corporations who pay no tax on our highways, but who would reap an immense income if their scheme to force intolerably expensive stone, hard or concrete roads on the country succeeds, whether that income be from the debt-environment of township bonds or the lesser profits to automobile factories; and,

Whereas, The hard funds of the east with close material, cost even when built by corporation from $9,000 to $22,000 per mile, or from $55,000 to $60,000 for one road across a township, notwithstanding the deluding falsehoods to the contrary; and,

Whereas, We condemn these costly experiments, pushed as they are, by mercenary influences, before we have even begun to try the rational, feasible means at hand of grading and drainage which would immeasurably benefit our roads and increase the ten months each year in which we have unparaleled roads, be it therefore

Resolved, That we insist on the self-respecting right to build and improve our highway at such expense as we can locally afford in the plain need of improvement, regardless of non-resident and non-taxpaying corporations who are organized and working not for our good, nor our good roads, but to devour our substance and with it wreck our famous land values and even ultimately confiscate our farms; be it further

Resolved, That we call upon our fellow farmers to demand of their representatives, state and national, the defeat of this lobby and the covert conspiracy back of it, and that we warmly endorse the recent action of the world's fair congress of farmers in promptly turning down the resolution to accept government aid in road building, offered, as it is, under deceptive and objectionable conditions.

Professor Hart then talked for some time on "The Creamery as a Feature in Agricultural Prosperity," and at the conclusion of his remarks the institute was adjourned for the day. Mr. Staymates was to have spoken in the evening, but was unable to remain on account of another engagement.

The concluding sessions will be held Friday morning and afternoon. The prizes will be announced at the closing session.

MURRAY APPEALS.

A. G. Murray, who was one of the candidates who failed to be placed on the regular Republican ticket by the county judges, has applied to the supreme court for a mandamus to compel the secretary of state to place his name on the regular Republican ticket for the lower house of the legislature. The matter will doubtless be decided soon.

CITY COUNCIL

REGULAR SESSION HELD THURSDAY NIGHT

Discussion Over Revision of the City Ordinances—Hardin Ave. May Be Extended—Petition to Change Name of W. North St.

The city council held a short session Thursday evening. The question of the revision of the city ordinances was considered, the extension of Hardin avenue discussed, a petition was read asking to have the name of West North street changed to Grand avenue, several matters pertaining to sidewalks were brought before the members of the council and the placing of a new fire plug near the car shops included most of the important matters that received attention.

The city council met in regular session Thursday evening, Mayor John R. Davis in the chair and all members present except Ald. Hildreth.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Ralph Reynolds, who was present, was permitted to address the council regarding the sidewalk ordinance passed for East Chambers street. Mr. Reynolds spoke against the construction of the walk.

Mr. Black, a resident of that street, addressed the council and spoke along the same lines.

Mr. Scott Carter and Mr. W. A. McCarthy, residents of the street, spoke in favor of the construction of the walk and on motion of Ald. Moore, seconded by Ald. Vaughn, the matter was referred to the board of local improvements.

A petition was read from a large number of property owners on West North street asking to have the name of the street changed to Grand avenue.

Ald. Goveia brought up the matter of opening the street through from North Prairie street to North Church street.

Ald. Cobb and Johnson spoke in favor of the continuation of the street.

On motion the matter was referred to the board of local improvements.

A petition was read from property owners residing on East College avenue, east of the Altou railroad, asking for the construction of a sewer on said street this fall.

Ald. Cobb spoke in favor of the petition. Same referred to board of local improvement.

Ald. Cobb brought up the question of a water plug near the C. P. & St. L. shops so as to afford suitable protection against fire. Referred to the fire and water committee to report.

Ald. Johnson brought up the matter of a street pavement on South West street and asked the board of local improvement to proceed in the matter as rapidly as possible.

The chairman of the committee assured the alderman the proper steps would be taken soon.

Under new business Ald. Cobb brought up the matter of opening a road to Nichols park in the east part of the city and spoke in favor of continuing Hardin avenue to the Vandalla road.

Ald. Cobb suggested the matter be referred to the public improvement committee and a motion to that effect prevailed. Several aldermen spoke in favor of the proposition and the urgent need of such a road.

Ald. Moore brought up the matter of the defacement of concrete sidewalks by marking them before they were completed and by painting figures and signs upon them. The matter was referred to the ordinance committee.

Ald. Johnson brought up the matter of a revision of the ordinances and expressed the opinion that such action was needed.

Ald. Tiekner stated he would like to hear from the city clerk, who was appointed on a committee for that purpose.

The clerk stated that it was plainly apparent that a revision of the ordinances was needed, but that he thought the city council would have a big job on their hands to undertake the matter of revision themselves. He expressed the opinion that the council should designate some person or persons to make the revision, as it was a need that was urgent.

Ald. Vaughn, chairman of the ordinance committee, stated that he was in favor of a revision of the ordinances provided they were to be revised by the members of the council. He felt that it was something that ought to have attention. He was opposed, however, to having the revision made simply for the purpose of giving some Republican politician a job. He felt that the ordinances needed revision and was willing to take the matter up provided it could be done by the council as a body.

The clerk stated that the committee recently appointed to consider the revision of the ordinances would try and present a report at the next meeting of the council.

Nothing further appearing the council adjourned at 8:10, after one of the shortest sessions held in many months.

MATRIMONIAL

JOY-COWDIN.

Miss Frances Blanche Cowdin became the bride of Mr. Edward Fairbank Joy at a pretty home wedding solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Cowdin, of Joy Prairie, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Bertha Anderson, of this city, gave the following vocal program, all the numbers of which were most beautifully interpreted: "I Wait for Thee," Hawley; "I Love You, Dear," Wallace P. Day; "Oh! Promise Me," DeKoven.

To the sweet strains of Schubert's Serenade skillfully played by Miss Kathleen Vickery the bride and groom entered the front parlor and taking positions beneath a beautiful bower of green and white the words of the marriage service were impressively spoken by Rev. Martin Post, pastor of the Joy Prairie Congregational church, using the ring ceremony.

After the bridal couple had received the hearty and sincere congratulations of the guests present elegant refreshments were served.

The bride was gowned in a beautiful creation of white silk tissue over silk, with a transparent yoke and bertha of Irish point lace, and carried a huge bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Cowdin and received her education in the schools of this city. She is a young lady of attractive manner and has many graces of character which have endeared her to a wide circle of friends.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman F. Joy, of Joy Prairie, and is well and favorably known. He is engaged in the occupation of farming and enjoys a splendid reputation for his ability and business judgment.

Mr. and Mrs. Joy were the recipients of a large number of very handsome wedding presents, which bespeak the esteem in which they are held by their friends. They left on the Wabash train at 1:30 for Chicago and after a visit to the fair in St. Louis will be at home to their friends in Joy Prairie after Nov. 12.

RACING MATINEE

HELD AT FAIR GROUNDS THURSDAY

Five Heats in the 2:30 Trot and Event Still Unfinished—Good Card Was Offered.

The Jacksonville Driving club held their regular matinee at the fair grounds Thursday afternoon, which was probably the last matinee of the season, unless the weather should remain favorable.

There was not the large crowd usually present, but those who did brave the chilly air and wind were lovers of the sport, and most of them remained to the finish.

The crowd was a restless one, made so by the cool condition of the atmosphere, but they kept on the sunny side of the bleachers and found opportunity to deal up considerable enthusiasm at times, as the offerings on the race card yesterday furnished some exhibitions in horse racing that well repaid the shivering humanity who were there to witness the contests.

The 2:30 trot, which has been the sensational race at every matinee this year, did not go back on its reputation yesterday, and the fifth heat was raced in the dark, and the horses came into the finish so closely bunched that even at the wire the judges found it difficult to pick the winner, and much argument followed the rendering of their decision. The result was an agreement to finish the race this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The following races were finished in fairly good time, considering the weather conditions:

3:00 MINUTE PACE.

The first race was a 3:00 minute pace with the following entries: Jo-Jo (H. H. Massey), Little Midget (J. L. Rutherford), Little Tanner (Bergschneider), Robert Whitely, Jr. (J. W. Clary). The horses got off well the second time down and Jo-Jo pulled to the front on the strength of a short spurt of speed, but went up at the quarter post; but in the back stretch Robert Whitely pulled out of the bunch and held well ahead around to the finish.

Second heat—The horses got off in the second time down, but at the quarter stretch Jo-Jo went off his feet and Robert Whitely pushed out of the bunch for a long lead, and held it around to the finish, pulling about six lengths to the good. Little Tanner came in second. Although Little Midget got onto her feet after pulling out of the back stretch, and made a pretty race down the homestretch, but could only make third place.

Time: 1:14.

Third heat—The third and final heat of the 3:00 minute pace was finished in one, two, three order, as in former heats. On pulling into the back stretch Jo-Jo went off his feet and Robert Whitely, Jr., and Little Tanner had a pretty race to themselves around the back stretch and to the wire. Although Robert Whitely stayed about a length ahead, yet Tanner showed wonderful development in speed and held steady the entire circuit. Should the horse show as much improvement next season he will stand well to the front in his class before the close of the season.

Time: 1:14.

Summary:

Robert Whitely, Jr.	1	1	1
Little Tanner	2	2	2
Jo-Jo	3	3	3
Little Midget	4	4	4

Time—1:13, 1:14, 1:14.

3:20 PACE.

In the 3:20 pace the following entries were made: Billy Tanner (James Green), Cricket (Croker), Motor, Jr. (George Craig), One Eyed Moxey (George Wood), and Nancy W. (Anderson). The first two heats of this race followed one another and in both One Eyed Moxey pulled in an easy winner, with Motor, Jr., second.

Nancy W., third, and Cricket, fourth in first heat and Billy Tanner fifth. In second heat Billy Tanner was fourth and ricket fifth. In the third heat they all got off in a bunch and went in good shape around to the quarter stretch, when Cricket and Tanner broke. One Eyed Moxey dodged out of the bunch for a good lead, which he kept well into the home stretch, when he was overhauled by Motor, Jr., and the two made a pretty finish, with the former pulling under the wire in the lead about a head. Time: 1:20 1/2.

Summary:

One Eyed Moxey	1	1	1
Motor, Jr.	2	2	2
Cricket	3	3	3
Nancy W.	4	4	4
Billy Tanner	5	5	5

Time—1:21, 1:20, 1:20 1/2.

2:30 PACE.

First heat—There were four entries in this race. Cherry Blossom (R. K. DeFrettes) drew the pole; Hal Askew (H. S. Bert), Big Billy (M. Anderson), Bessie C. (Woods & Co.). They got off in good shape, Cherry Blossom early taking the lead, with Hal Askew a close second. Big Billy got off his feet before reaching the quarter pole and Bessie C. was soon up in the air and lost several lengths, but settling down again came into the home stretch in pretty shape, closing into the leaders about two lengths behind. Cherry Blossom made a bad break on entering the homestretch, but recovered in time to win easily by about a length. Hal Askew came in second. Time: 1:10.

Second heat—The horses got off in good shape the second time down, Cherry Blossom pulling early into the lead. Hal Askew broke just around the quarter and was set back for the heat. Bessie C. came up strong on the back stretch, gradually closing on Cherry Blossom and passed her just before reaching the three-quarter pole. Cherry Blossom broke and it looked like victory for Bessie C., but a break put Cherry Blossom again in the lead, while Big Billy, who had been coming steadily around the course, closed up for second place and followed Cherry Blossom, two lengths behind. Time: 1:09.

Third heat—The third heat in this race proved the finish, as Cherry Blossom had everything her way and made the circuit a winner by long odds. They went in a bunch around the second turn and Cherry Blossom pulled into the lead, while the remainder of the bunch were recovering from their breaks. Bessie C. made a prett to race into the home stretch, but lost by a break, which put her far in the rear.

Summary:

Hal Askew	2	2	2
Bessie C.	3	3	3
Big Billy	4	4	4

Time—1:10, 1:09, 1:09.

2:30 TROT.

This was the race of the afternoon and so much time was consumed in getting off that the event took the major part of the afternoon. Twelve to fifteen attempts were made in nearly every heat in an effort to get away, but when they were off the result was always a good race.

First heat—Five entries were made for this race. Little Irene (C. F. Corrington), drew the pole. Watch Out (J. L. Rutherford) second; Billy (George Craig), Florence (George Woods), Cora J. (Frank Lohman). After several trials they got off in the first heat in fairly good shape. Traveling to the quarter post in a bunch Cora J. and Watch Out pulled ahead and kept abreast until the center of the back stretch, when Watch Out went off his feet, leaving Cora J. well in the lead. Little Irene was soon along side the leader and entered the home stretch for a close finish with Cora J. for first place. Time: 1:14 1/2.

Second heat—After innumerable attempts to get the horses off in even fairly good shape they finally got off after Little Irene had made the circuit of the track several times to reduce her excess energy. When they did finally get off Cora J. and Little Irene pushed into the lead, but just past the quarter stretch Irene went up and stayed up well into the back stretch, losing considerable ground. She came onto her feet again and in a wonderful burst of speed overhauled Cora J. and into the home stretch gave that horse a merry race for the wire, coming in second place half a length behind. Time: 1:12.

Third heat—It took just thirteen trials to get the bunch off in this heat and immediately Cora J. and Little Irene passed into the lead and pulled neck and neck from the quarter post around to the wire in one of the prettiest races seen at the grounds this year. Irene stayed close to Cora J. and when only a few lengths from the wire Cora J. went into the air and Little Irene pulled under the wire a neck ahead.

Fourth heat Five times down got the horses off this time and Little Irene had an easy race all the way around. Cora J. went off her feet just as she passed the second turn and lost so much ground that she finished fourth. Watch Out first and the horses made many efforts close to Irene on entering the home stretch, but lost first place by about two lengths. Time: 1:12.

Fifth heat—Darkness was coming on fast the horses again made many efforts to score. When finally they got away they were lost in the darkness fifty yards from the wire. It would possibly have been one of the best races on the card, as the entire group came under the wire in a bunch, but the crowd in the darkness could hardly take note of the race on the way around. The judges interviewed the drivers and after getting their opinions awarded first place to Billy and second Cora J. Third Little Irene and fourth Watch Out. Unable to come to any definite agreement regarding the finish the judges decided to finish the race at 2 o'clock to day.
